THE PEOPLE'S STORE IN ARM A COMBINATION STOCK SALE.

The new history of prices for several stocks of merchandise will be created with the opening of Monday morning. Wherever prices fail in their harmony with value the representatives of level their guns, and in every successful negotiation ask you to join them in these beneficial and proper methods of BARGAIN TRADING.

A HUGE AVALANCHE OF MERCHANDISE falls to the hard terms of necessity, and is dumped on our counters to be dealt withal in terms, and on basis of our usual rule,

"SELL AS WE BUY."

An entire Linen stock succumbs to the offer of cash. An entire Ladies' Muslin Underwear stock falls under the auctioneer's hammer for being damaged by water. Silks, Dinner- and Tea-ets, Laces, Embroideries. Woollen Dress Fabrics, Cotton Wares and innumerable others are ready for QUICK SELLING. An immense stock of HOSIERY will occupy the front part of left aisle. LADIES' MUSLIN UNDERWEAR will occupy the entire centre part of centre aisle. LINENS will suggest their bargain stories the entire length of left aisle. Goods purchased at this sale will be delivered on the day purchased if possible; if not, on the day following. Our World's Fair artiste will take your measure and cut a pattern free of charge for any one buying material to the amount of $2.50.

No such a sale was ever made in Vir

We'll call it "The Rel eve Sale," because the purchase of it relieved a goodly disposed merchant from the ne-ressity of making an assignment. Here are some of the prices modestly depicted in their comparative values and our selling marks. TABLE LINENS.
